NOVEMBER 2011

For this month Special Project – HIV / AIDS Awareness Training Programme

The purpose of this programme is to equip the learners with the necessary knowledge, skills and attitudes to reflect on and make informed choices about their attitudes and behavioural practices. It will also contribute to building a wider understanding of HIV / AIDS issues; to the rights of people living with HIV and AIDS; and to workplaces which are more responsive to the needs of those living with HIV and AIDS.

Programme Outlines of this specific programme:

- a. The nature of HIV and AIDS
- b. Practices that reduce and prevent the risk of infection
- c. Beliefs and attitudes towards HIV and AIDS
- d. The rights of people living with HIV and AIDS

NOTES

- On the 01st of December 2011 it is World Aids Day – please do not ignore this epidemic and consider the above Learning Programme for a safe and healthy community. Do your part to create positive attitudes and a responsible workforce. Be liable for social upliftment through the training of an important life skill.
- We would like to invite other companies, to work with us on special projects with regards to this. Kindly come with suggestions and let us make a difference.
